NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Mathew Bauscher was accidentally killed in San Francisco yesterday by falling through a hatchway.

The San Francisco Bay Sugar Refinery was yesterday destroyed by fire. Loss $500,000.

Sherman has introduced a bill in the Senate describing coins of the United States. The bill provides that three dollar pieces and twenty cent pieces shall not hereafter be coined.

The Republicans held an immense ratification meeting in Washington on Monday night. Blaine and Butler were among the speakers.

There was some excitement in New York Monday over the departure of the delegates for St. Louis. Kelly said he was decidedly opposed to Tilden, and it is supposed he favors Hendricks. Kelly, Schell and some others started last night.

The Mark Lane Express says: Concurrent with the improvement in the aspect of crops, anxiety about political matters has dropped. The market has consequently relaxed into a state of calm, and, with large supplies from the American and Russian trade, has been confined to supplying present requirements.

Two more cases of small pox were reported in San Francisco yesterday.

The Connecticut House of Representatives has passed, by a vote of 106 to 70, the bill allowing women over 21 years of age who hold property to the amount of $500 to vote in school, borough and town elections.

At the ratification meeting in Washington on Monday night General Grant made a "short" speech endorsing Hayes and Wheeler.

A Times' Bismarck special says that reliable advices from Standing Rock Agency report at least three thousand Indians at that place, that they are hunting and large amounts of pelts are being brought in, but the agent and Indians try to disguise the fact that their young men are generally absent.

At Washington yesterday it was rumored that Bristow's place will be offered to Morrill of Maine.

Treasurer New's resignation is in the hands of the President.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent draws a startling picture of what may be the result of the appropriation bills not being finally passed by both Houses in less than ten days. The features are that our Ministers and Consuls will be recalled, the army annihilated, and the postal service stopped.

People do not care much about BLAINE now, but there may be a few who will read the following concerning him with interest: "He uses neither liquor nor tobacco in any shape, and rarely drinks a glass of wine at dinner. He eats simple food and sleeps regularly and long. He has for thirty years come near obeying nature's laws as it is given for men to understand them, and at forty-six—his present age—he is counted as handsome a man, physically, as there is in public life."

RECENTLY in New York a dozen wine merchants were arrested for making and selling crooked champagne. They took either, or Sauterne, or California wine, and put it into bottles with acid enough to make it pop. This they sold as extra dry and dry Verzenay; but it made no odds to the wine drinkers who generally pretended to a delicate discrimination of the brands, until the fraud was discovered by the proprietor of the genuine brand of the wine counterfeited. It was found that three-quarters of the wine drunk in the United States is made similarly, which is rather disappointing to champagne drinkers. But as comparatively few people quench their thirst with champagne, comparatively few people will care how it is made.

THIS is what the Dictionary of Congress says about WILLIAM A. WHEELER, the Republican nominee for Vice President: "Born in Malone, Franklin County, New York, in 1820; was a member of the class of 1842 of the University of Vermont, but did not graduate; adopted the profession of law; in 1850 and 1851 he was elected to the State Legislature; in 1857 and 1858 to the State Senate; and in 1860 he was elected a Representative from New York, to the Thirty-seventh Congress. He was for many years engaged in the banking business, and was President of the Ogdensburg and Rouse's Railroad Company. He was also a Delegate to the 'State Constitutional Convention' of 1857, and was elected its President."

Rutherford B. Hayes.

The nomination of such a man as HAYES for an important office always imposes a good deal of labor on editors and other newspaper men. He is to fame and fortune unknown, and to find out who he is, what he is, and what he has done, involves a vast deal of work. The other day when it was announced that HAYES was the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention, our leading Republicans were inquiring of each other who he was and what regiment he served in. For an hour or two no one knew or could guess his given name. We knew he was Governor of Ohio, but Ohio is a small State and her Governor of no material importance to Los Angeles. We went to the Encyclopedia, but it did not know HAYES; and then we looked over the News-Letter's list of "Men we know," and there found GASHWILER and JOHN P. JONES and MICHAEL REESE, but no R. B. HAYES. Finally we bethought us of an old copy of "LANMAN'S Dictionary of Congress," and its pages gave us the following:

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

"Born in Delaware, Ohio, October 4, 1822; graduated at Kenyon College, Ohio, and at the Law School of Cambridge; adopted the profession of law; was City Solicitor of Cincinnati from 1858 to 1861; Major and Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-third Ohio Volunteers in 1861; Colonel of the same from 1862 to 1864, when he was appointed a Brigadier-General and during the same year was elected a Representative from Ohio, to the Thirty-ninth Congress, serving on the Committee on Private Land Claims, and as chairman of the Committee on the Library. He was also a delegate to the Philadelphia "Loyalists' Convention" of 1866, and of the "Soldiers' Convention" held at Pittsburg; and was re-elected to the Fortieth Congress; resigned in the Summer of 1867, and was soon afterwards elected Governor of Ohio."

This was something, but it did not positively assure us that it was the HAYES, and not a Republican in town could verify the fact. Besides it only brought the gentleman's official record down to 1867. We hunted up ex-Gauger BRIERLY, who is the Republican oracle and encyclopedia hereabouts, and from him learned that LANMAN'S HAYES was the HAYES; that he defeated Rag Baby ALLEN for Governor in Ohio last year, and that he was a very good fellow. We give these facts for the information of our Republican friends who are seeking information under difficulties.

The Figures.

About this time look out for estimates on the Presidential contest. It is the easiest thing in the world to sit down and figure out the election of either the Democratic or Republican nominees. All that is necessary is to say this State will vote this way and that way until you get a majority for your candidate, and the thing is done. Here is the result of a Republican journal's effort in this direction:

REPUBLICAN.
Illinois.....	21
Kansas.....	5
Massachusetts.....	13
Minnesota.....	5
New Hampshire.....	5
North Carolina.....	10
South Carolina.....	5
Vermont.....	5
Wisconsin.....	10
Total.....	158
DEMOCRATIC.
Alabama.....	10
Arkansas.....	6
Delaware.....	3
Kentucky.....	12
Louisiana.....	8
Maryland.....	6
Mississippi.....	8
North Carolina.....	10
Tennessee.....	12
Virginia.....	11
West Virginia.....	5
Total.....	127
DOUBTFUL.
California.....	6
Florida.....	4
Indiana.....	13
Nevada.....	2
New Jersey.....	9
New York.....	35
Oregon.....	3
Total.....	81

If one can prevail on himself to believe that the States will actually vote as our friend has voted them, the Republicans may rejoice and Democrats hide their vanquished heads. But on the other hand, if we count California, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York and Oregon Democratic, as they certainly are, the figures will present a different aspect, and the mourning will be on the other side of the house.

A Libel Suit.

In the Third District Court yesterday, Carlos White began a libel suit against J. L. Russell and L. M. McKenney, partners in the business of printing "patent outsiders" for country newspapers. White, who is engaged in the same business, is the party who assaulted James Carr, son of Professor Carr, in Sacramento last Winter, and created a sensation by denouncing young Carr as the destroyer of his domestic happiness. The libel suit has grown out of that affair. Russell & McKenney allege that White, to avoid paying alimony to his wife, endeavored to barter real estate for their business, and because they refused to be accessories to the alleged swindle, he denounced them in a private circular. In return Russell & McKenney sent a private circular to their patrons, in which White was described as a lunatic, and his character as a business man invidiously reflected on. The circulation of the document, White alleges, has injured his business to the extent of $10,000, and he asks judgment for that amount.—San Francisco Post, June 17th.

Solar Incubation.

John H. Lewis, Assistant Postmaster, while walking in the yard at his premises yesterday afternoon, heard a little chicken calling, and after looking every where else, discovered that it was in a box, and had evidently been hatched by the heat of the sun, the nights lately not having been sufficiently cool to interfere with the process. Some of Mr. Lewis' hens were accustomed to lay in this box, but one was not exposed to the sun, but stood under cover, and doubtless where the heat was tolerably uniform. We had almost forgot to mention that the chicken is as sprightly as chicken ever was.—Sac. Record-Union, June 17th:

An Act.

There is more to be learned about pouring out tea and coffee than most ladies are willing to believe. If those decoctions are made at the table, which is far the best way, they require experience, judgment and exactness; if they be brought on the table ready made it still requires judgment so to apportion them that they shall prove sufficient in quantity for the family party, and that the older members shall have the stronger cups. Often persons pouring out tea, not being aware that the first cup is the weakest, and that the tea grows stronger as you proceed, bestow the poorest cup upon the greatest stranger and give the very strongest member of the family the strongest cup. This is so well understood in England that an experienced pourer of tea waits till all the cups are returned to her before she fills any a second time, that all may share alike. (The Housekeeper.)

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—About ten minutes before one o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the upper story of the Bay Sugar Refinery, a huge seven-story brick building on the corner of Battery and Union streets. Despite the efforts of the entire Fire Department, which was concentrated on the ground, the fire spread from story to story until the whole building was a mass of flames and the destruction complete. The refinery was owned by an incorporated company of which William H. Moore was President, and had a running capacity of 12,000 tons. The loss is about $350,000; insured for $225,000. The building was considerably damaged by fire several months ago. The fire patrol spread their canvas to protect the goods in the rapid progress of the flames rendered their efforts fruitless, and a number of coolers were obliged to be abandoned. While attempting to get a stream in at the upper window, the chains of a ladder gave away, and several firemen were precipitated to the ground, but they sustained no serious injury.

O'Leary at 5 P. M. has finished one hundred and fifty-five miles; amateurs, one hundred and eighty-six. Silver cup 5 to 6 per cent. discount; trade dollars 7 to 8.

A car on Sutter street line while on the grade at Leavenworth street had its brake broken last evening, and in descending the hill ran off the track, demolishing the car. Two ladies were badly hurt.

The Coolit injunction suit to restrain the Central Pacific Directors from paying interest on lands of the California Central, was to-day decided in favor of plaintiff by the Fourth District Court, and injunction issued as prayed for.

Seven cases of small-pox reported to-day; one a Chinaman who had died of the disease before being found out.

The Celebration Committee have realized handsomely from the two benefits tendered to them by Martin Lehman and his amateur assistants, and Col. Wood's Opera House. They return thanks for the public spirit and enterprise of those gentlemen who have so materially assisted the cause.

A young man named Ferdinand Ynigo, who came down on the Orizaba, became violently insane and had to be kept under surveillance to prevent his committing suicide. He was locked up by the officers here, and will be held until placed in charge of his relatives.

The City of Paris has one of its show windows decorated in the highest of Centennial style. Red, white and blue ribbons, flags, and other patriotic emblems are festooned about the centre is occupied by a picture of Washington. The window presents an exceedingly tasty appearance.

We would not advise our readers to visit the Important clothing store unless they expect ultimately to invest. The Winters brothers with their taking ways and seductive prices are certain to draw a trade from almost anybody with eyes to behold. By way of emphasis, we refer to the double column advertisement of the Important which appears this morning.

We direct the attention of land buyers to the rare chance offered this morning by Mr. J. W. Potts. He has placed on the market seventy-five of the finest building lots in this city, located on the hills West of Fort street, and they will be sold at public auction without reserve on Wednesday, June 28th at a detailed list of the property is given in the advertisement.

The Qui Vive society of Westminster, numbering about 20 persons, will proceed to the sandvine vines in the San Diego Canon on July 3d and remain until the 5th. The exercises on the Fourth will comprise singing, oration recitations, reading selections, etc., and after dinner toasts will be responded to. One of the features of the occasion will be the singing of Whittier's Centennial Hymn. Friends of the society are cordially invited to participate with them in celebrating the day.

A country exchange labors with an account of a homicide and before the grand climax is reached kills both the heroes, resurrects one to give his evidence in the case, and sends them both off in the verdict of the Coroner's jury. Such is the plot of the parties (who have killed) is committed in default of $1,000 bail, and the other, who perpetrated the foul deed, is buried amidst the exultation of his grief-stricken family or vice-versa. That writer should soak his head and drink a barrel of soda water.

Anahelm is organizing an Anti-Coolie club. The Gazette of yesterday says: Quite a number of our citizens interested in the Anti-Coolie movement, assembled at Enterprise Hall on Saturday evening. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Miner, Fischer, Webb, Scott and Lynell. Owing to the lateness of the hour, the meeting was adjourned without transacting any business. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday evening. Efforts are being made to organize an Anti-Coolie Club.

The San Bernardino Times says: we were shown this morning by Mr. Mintzer, the plans and elevation of the new Colton hotel. If the plan is followed the building will be one that would do credit to a large city. It will contain a very large dining-room, commodious chambers, suites of apartments for those desiring them, a large parlor, bar-room and well appointed kitchen, with all the conveniences of a modern hotel. The contractors for building it are, Perry, Woodworth & Co., of Los Angeles, who have already commenced getting out the wood work for it, and will, when completed, cost from $10,000 to $12,000.

Last night about ten o'clock, within two hundred yards of Mr. J. S. Bell's residence, at Los Alamos, two masked men stopped the southward stage and called for Wells, Fargo & Company's box. The box was handed out to one of the men, who shook it, and as it appeared to be empty returned it to the driver. While shaking the box, his pistol, which he probably had in his hand cocked, went off. The robbers then demanded money of the passengers, of whom they obtained about $40. There were three passengers then in the stage. The horses of the robbers were also masked. They had evidently missed the stage where they had at first intended to intercept it, as they were riding furiously when they overtook it at Mr. Bell's. Mr. Bell, who was waiting to come to the stage, was awakened, probably by the report of the pistol, and went out with his overcoat and blanket, saw the lights of the stage, and in about five minutes after the stage drove up and the driver announced that they had been robbed by two men. Mr. Bell informed his brother-in-law, Mr. Manuel Den, of the fact. Mr. Den, in company with three men, immediately went in pursuit of the robbers, and if they are overtaken those same men will not soon bother another stage.

It is a singular fact that no watches or jewelry were demanded. Mr. Stowe senior, who was in the stage lost some $25, and considers himself quite fortunate that the scoundrels did not take his watch. The men evidently expected to make a large haul, and when the wagon rolled they said to each other "you are a set of dead beats." It is supposed that a regular organized band of these road agents have a rendezvous somewhere about Graciosa or Lompoc, and we are much mistaken if some of them do not come to grief before many days.—Press, 17th.

Sewing Machine Motor.

We saw at the rooms of Messrs. Doak & Bailey yesterday a water-motor applied to a sewing machine, which is the nearest thing in its line that ever came under our observation. The power is a perfectly formed Turbine water wheel in miniature, enclosed in a water tight cast iron shell and attached to the machine beneath the stand where the balance wheel is usually hung. Communicating with this is a supply and exhaust pipe, the former connected with the hydrant, and the latter leading to the sewer. The joints are perfectly fitted so that there is no leakage. The water is admitted near the upper part of the wheel in a little jet not more than double the size of a knitting needle. This causes sufficient power to run the machine to its utter capacity and it can be regulated to a nicety by a pedal arrangement which controls a stop cock. This contrivance will obviate the chief and only objection to the sewing machine as run by foot pedals; in fact it removes all of the drudgery and leaves only the art. The attachment can be applied in any house where water is supplied in pipes or by a tank, and the total expense will hardly exceed thirty-five dollars.

Thanks.

At a meeting of the 4th of July Collection Committee held June 20th, a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Martin Lehman and others for their efforts, and the success attending them, at the Centennial Benefit given at Turner's Hall. Also to Messrs. Wood & Ryan proprietors of the Opera House for their extreme liberality and the substantial success that attended their benefit. Per order, GEO. E. GARD, Sec.

Another Homicide.

We find in the San Bernardino Times of Monday the following: Another homicide occurred in our country last evening. It appears that the deceased, Spencer, has been separated from his wife for some months past, and that there has been considerable hard feeling between himself and his step-son, Michael Vandervinter, which culminated last night in the death of the former. The following, the evidence of the principal witness before the Coroner, gives the facts of the case:

Deceased was named Daniel Spencer. He was killed yesterday about half an hour before sundown at Mrs. Vandervinter's house, on the premises leased of Dr. St. Clair, in San Timoteo Canon. He came down from Mr. Noble's to Mrs. Vandervinter's. Michael Vandervinter, son of Mrs. V., who lived with her, told deceased not to come into the yard. He got out to hitch his horses, and they started to go away from him. He got them again and hitched them, and then reached into his carriage and got his six-shooter and came into the yard, and said he wanted to see his wife, Mrs. V. She was standing on the porch, and asked him if he wanted to see her. He replied that he wanted to see her. He said that he had come to kill some of her. He started towards Michael, who went into the house. Mrs. Spencer, whom I have called Mrs. V., asked him again what he wanted to see her for. He replied that he wanted to see her. He said that he had come to kill some of her. He started towards Michael, who went into the house. Mrs. Spencer, whom I have called Mrs. V., asked him again what he wanted to see her for. He replied that he wanted to see her. He said that he had come to kill some of her. He started towards Michael, who went into the house.

REASONS WHY
—THE—
REMINGTON FAMILY SEWING MACHINES
Are Superior to All Others.
FIRST—THEIR SIMPLICITY.
The use of them is very easily acquired, and any girl of ordinary intelligence is capable of keeping them in order.
SECOND—THE CONSTRUCTION of the Machine is such that it may be run at a higher rate of speed than any other Machine now in the market. In factories where the rate of speed has been registered, over 1,000 stitches per Minute have been attained with ease.
THIRD—THEIR DURABILITY
being so strong in all their parts and fitted with great mechanical nicety, and being free from the harsh jarring movements of the so common in inferior machines they will wear a long time without repair of any kind.
FOURTH—THEIR ADAPTABILITY.
By a simple change of the needle and thread they will sew the finest cambric or the heavy-est leather.
FIFTH—THEY HAVE NO ROTARY CAMS,
Cog-wheels or levers to make a noise, run hard, or to get out of order.
SIXTH—THEY HAVE AN ADJUSTABLE
screw which may be raised or lowered at pleasure.
SEVENTH—ALL THEIR MOVEMENTS are positive and they cannot be thrown out of time.
Manufactured by the Largest Manufacturing company in America, possessing a worldwide reputation in the manufacture of their instruments, they afford a guarantee of perfection in work and construction.
No other sewing machine has ever been introduced so quickly and met with such rapid sale as the

REMINGTON
It arouses the jealousy, opposition and persistent misrepresentation of the older Sewing Machine Companies through their agents, and even the old Singer Company, through its agents, devotes the largest part of its advertisements to show that it is not an improved Singer, and that its calculations are upon false bases.
"With malice toward none and charity for all," it will be the aim of the agent of the Remington Sewing Machine to afford to all an opportunity of testing machines with those of any other, and let them make their own selection.
